

ROUND TABLE: "MEDIA FREEDOM IN GREECE - WAYS FORWARD AND PROPOSALS"

When: Tuesday, 5 March 2024

01:00 - 2:30 p.m. EET

Where: Participate in person at the Thessaloniki International Exhibition & Congress Centre (TIECC), 154 Egnatias Street, Thessaloniki (see location here).

The Safety of Journalists Platform of the Council of Europe, the Journalists' Union of Macedonia and Thrace, the Symbiosis - School of Political Studies in Greece affiliated to the Council of Europe will hold a Media Freedom roundtable with the participation of Greek journalists, unions, authorities, and media freedom representatives.

The roundtable will be structured around press freedom issues of the latest MFRR report on Greece: media plurality, SLAPPs, surveillance and impunity/physical safety of journalists.

Moderator:

Yannis Kotsifos – Director, Journalists' Union of Macedonia and Thrace

Presentation of the findings of the MFRR report:

Jasmijn de Zeeuw – Legal adviser, FPU – Presentation of the MFRR findings and recommendations

Panelists:

Giorgos Christides, investigative journalist

Yannis-Orestis Papadimitriou, investigative journalist, Manifold and School of Political Studies alumnus

Stavroula Poulimeni, investigative journalist, Sto Kokkino

Eliza Triantafyllou, investigative journalist, Inside story

Interventions:

Thodoris Chondrogiannos, investigative journalist, Reporters United

Tasos Telloglou, investigative journalist, Inside story

Recommendations and concluding remarks:

Sotirios Triantafyllou, President, Panhellenic Federation of Journalists' Unions (via Zoom)

Ricardo Gutiérrez, General Secretary, the European Federation of Journalists

For information on the event, please check the website

<https://fom.coe.int/en/rapports/detail/24> or contact mediafreedom@coe.int.